

Erin Mahoney
Hutt Valley DHB and Dental Research Unit
University of Otago, Wellington

Maternal and Child Oral Health- 2 years on

In 2009 the report: A systematic review of the Maternal and Child Oral Health was published by the Ministry of Health. The report indicated that little is known about the link between caregiver's general and oral health and their children's oral health. This lecture will discuss the findings of this report as well as an update on the literature since it was published.